TIME: FRIDAY, 16 June 2017 @ 3pm

VENUE: 5th Floor Seminar Room, MRF Building, Rear 50 Murray Street

PRESENTER: Dr Shelley Gorman

TITLE: Can we harness sun exposure to limit metabolic dysfunction?

Dr Shelley Gorman is a Group Leader and Senior Research Fellow at the Telethon Kids Institute. Her research aims to better understand the health effects of sun exposure and vitamin D. She is focused on determining how ultraviolet radiation modulates metabolic dysfunction, inflammation, and immunity. Dr Gorman was awarded the Rebecca L. Cooper Medical Research Foundation AI and Val Rosenstrauss Fellowship in 2016 to investigate how safe sun exposure might be harnessed to suppress the development of obesity and metabolic dysfunction.
