PERKINS Seminar Series

THURSDAY 3 AUGUST

Professor George Yeoh

Laboratory Head, Liver Disease and Carcinogenesis Laboratory
Harry Perkins Institute of Medical Research

"Liver Disease and Cancer: The Impending Tsunami"

Professor George Yeoh completed his undergraduate science degree with honours and a PhD at The University of Western Australia. After completing his PhD he was awarded the prestigious CJ Martin Fellowship from the NH&MRC, which allowed him to study at The University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia and The Beatson Institute for Cancer Research in Glasgow before returning to UWA. Following his return to Australia he was awarded an NHMRC Fellowship and achieved successive renewals to the level of Principal Research Fellow. He was the Associate Dean, Research in the UWA Faculty of Medicine, Dentistry and Health Sciences, and is currently a Professor of Biochemistry & Molecular Biology.

Professor Yeoh has mentored over 100 students, has actively contributed to numerous scientific associations and has contributed extensively to promoting and advancing Medical Research across Australia.

Professor Yeoh has worked tirelessly in the field of liver disease and carcinogenesis. His work with liver stem cells has contributed vital insights into the viability of using transplanted cells for liver regeneration and has significantly informed our understanding of how liver cancer develops.

Professor Yeoh also holds the following appointments:

Senior Honorary Research Fellow, Discipline of Biochemistry & Molecular Biology, School of Molecular Sciences. Emeritus Professor, School of Biomedical Sciences. Faculty of Health & Medical Sciences Laboratory Head, Liver Development & Cancer Laboratory, Centre for Medical Research, Harry Perkins Institute of Medical Research. Director, Centre for Cell Therapy & Regenerative Medicine. Board Member;, Cancer Council of Western Australia, Institute for Respiratory Health, Cancer Council of Australia. Advisory Board Member, Cancer Australia.

12:00pm till 1:00pm
followed by a light lunch
