

Internal Educational Seminar

Long- term safety study for a new prophylaxis medication for malaria

Date: 15th May, 2018

Time: 4:30 - 6.30pm

Venue: Perkins Seminar Room G24

Attendance: All staff at Linear, Lions Eye Institute and Medical Physics.

What will be covered:

- Background to malaria, the FastTrack trial and the study drug- Tafenoquine [Paul Cohen, Scientific Affairs Director, Biointelect].
- Malaria and the value of the prophylactic use of Tafenoquine in travel medicine [Dr Bernie Hudson, Travel/ID physician, University of Sydney].
- Background to the Tafenoquine study and controversies explained [Dr Michael Winlo, Linear].
- Education on importance, conduct and interpretation of MINI psychology assessments [Dr Mike Verheegen, Psychiatrist].
- Education on importance and conduct of eye examinations, workflow (Booking system) at LCR, LEI and Medical Physics [Professor Fred Chen, Lions Eye Institute/Enid Chelva].
- Questions/FAQs.

* Drinks and Canapes served in the foyer from 6pm *

Thank you for attending this important session, brought to you by:

linear nurturing medical breakthroughs

